

David Olivares

I am writing to urge the TCEQ to reject the proposed rule allowing companies to spread treated produced water on land. Drinking water and farmland should not be negatively impacted ever, let alone with the proposed rule. Making our state a dumping ground is bad. Vote NO on this, and side with safeguarding agriculture, the environment and in turn, public health.