

Craig Eroh

While I applaud the transfer of oilfield waste water to the TCEQ, I disagree that testing standards of oilfield waste water should be the same as for municipal wastewater. Separate regulations need to be established. Let's go slow and do this right so it is a win-win.