

Julia Mickenberg

It is unacceptable to let fracked water be used on farms without definitive information about the dangers this water poses to food grown on this land or the groundwater with which it will combine. Please protect Texans from harmful chemicals and make sure we can maintain a healthy food supply!